Thank You to everyone that contributed to the Angel Tree mission outreach in December. For the first time ever, we held a Christmas party for the Angel Tree children and their families. During this time we ate pizza, decorated Christmas cookies, sang Christmas songs, showed a video of the true meaning of Christmas, and distributed gifts to the children on behalf of their incarcerated parent. We had 71 volunteers from Living Hope Church and Celebrate Recovery that either sponsored a child by buying a gift, gave of their time by helping with the party, or donated a meal to send home with each family. Overall we provided gifts to 46 local children from 24 different families. Out of those families 55 people attended the Christmas party, not including the many volunteers that were there to minister to our Angel Tree families. We couldn't have done this without you! Thank you.
